SURVEILLANCE POLICY

I. BACKGROUND:

All brokers have different types of business models and may offer different types and combination of services to different types of clients including retail, institutional, HNI through various modes like Call and Trade, Mobile based trading, Internet based trading, Portfolio Management Services (PMS), in addition to proprietary trading (including Algorithmic trading). For effective monitoring, NSE vide circular bearing reference no: NSE/INVG/22908 dated March 07, 2013, and BSE vide notice bearing reference no: 20130220-23 dated February 20, 2013, and reference no: 20130307-21 dated March 07, 2013, have prescribed Surveillance Obligations for Trading Members and advised to frame a surveillance policy covering all such applicable business models / services they offer.

In order to facilitate effective surveillance mechanisms at the broker level, the Exchanges would be generating / providing the alerts to the brokers based on the trading activity of their clients on the respective Exchanges. The broker has to analyse the alerts provided by the exchanges and report in case any suspicious transaction is noticed based on the parameters set by the exchanges and also by the broker internally. Besides exchange alerts, this policy aims to achieve the aforesaid objective.

II. OBJECTIVE OF SURVEILLANCE:

As the size of the complexities and level of technical sophistication of the market is increasing, there is a need for sound and effective mechanism which builds confidence of investors in the market.

Thus, in order to ensure investor protection and to safeguard the integrity of the market, it is imperative to have in place an effective market surveillance mechanism.

III. GENERATION OF ALERTS AND ITS ANALYSIS:

1. RECIPT OF ALERTS FROM EXCHANGES:
